

A Guide for the Host

Congratulations on your decision to host a Saladmaster dinner. I appreciate the opportunity to share our healthy cooking system with you and your guests. I promise to provide a fun-filled, interesting, and educational demonstration that everyone will enjoy. I am committed to doing my very best to help you earn your hosting gift.

I look forward to showing how Saladmaster's Health and Nutrition program is designed to enhance your lifestyle. You will discover how easy it is to prepare foods in a low fat, low cholesterol, and heart healthy way.

To receive a hosting gift (Saladmaster Machine, 5 qt Wok, Cutlery Set, or Tea Kettle) you must have at least 2 qualified couples present. You may invite additional guests listed below. In the event that only 1 qualified couple is present you are still eligible to receive a beautiful Saladmaster gift.

Who may attend your dinner show?

Married Couples - both husband and wife in attendance

Engaged Couples

Anyone who has an interest in health and nutrition

Anyone who is gainfully employed and has the ability to purchase household items

To help the dinner show go smoothly we ask that you provide the following items:

3 plates

2 clear glasses

2 forks

3 bowls

spatula

knife

salad tossing utensils

How do I invite my guests over for my dinner show?

"Hi (guest's name), I wanted to invite you over for a dinner show on (day, date). A representative from a local Saladmaster Dealership will be cooking a nutritious meal and sharing health and nutrition facts with us. If you attend my show you will be helping me win a FREE hosting gift from Saladmaster. Your only obligation is to eat the food. You are not obligated to buy anything. Just come and enjoy the show and the food!"

When inviting guests, it is important for you to SET THE DATE. Don't make the date dependent upon whether or not they are available. Treat your dinner date as if it were your birthday party.

*We provide enough food to serve 8 people.

*If one or more of your couples or guests cancel - don't worry - we will still cook for you. A dinner cancellation puts us out of work and we don't get credit for that dinner show. Please keep your dinner date.
